

A spokesman for Sen. Richard Schweiker, R-Pa. who headed that investigation, said the purpose of the second Roselli session was to get more details about the plots against Castro. One theory explored by the investigators was that Castro somehow learned about the CIA plots against his life and ordered Kennedy's death in retaliation.

Thomas Wadden Roselli's Washington attorney apparently saw a connection between Roselli's testimony and his death. Last week, before Roselli's body was found but after he was reported missing, Wadden attempted to contact Schweiker. Wadden was referred to the new, permanent intelligence committee, and he then tried to contact its chairman, Daniel Inouye, D-Hawaii, and vice chairman Howard Baker, R-Tenn.

✓ Baker has been quoted as saying "there appears to be a connection" between Roselli's death and that of Giancana.
